Aaron: Thanks for sharing this draft. This really is excellent work. I admit to being one of the ones skeptical of the need and value of such a task force and any recommendations. But, I can now see real value. Your recognition that the curriculum and format for Our Courts Arizona needs to be updated and made more dynamic is well-based. It has certainly been an under-publicized and underutilized resource.

I offer only a couple of comments for consideration.

I'll look at the report itself now and send you any additional suggestions.
