Founder of Hope Inspired Solutions
Maxwell Leadership Certified Trainer/Speaker
Fascination Advantage® Certified Advisor

Steff Kawasaki was born and raised on the island of Oahu, Hawaii, U.S.A. She brings creative vision and fresh ideas that promote an environment of engaged humans.

Over a 30-year civil service career with the Federal Government Department of Defense and many years of leading projects and facilitating teams, she experienced repetitive roadblocks to progress and realized it stemmed from resistant people. So she found ways to help individuals know who they are, their value, and why it matters to the team. The results helped discover their distinct value and how they benefited the team - ultimately elevating team cohesion.

She is a Maxwell Leadership Certified Trainer and the only certified advisor in Hawaii skilled in delivering the Fascination Advantage® System – a multi-dimensional communication tool based on branding and innovation.

She lives an active lifestyle, values time creating memories with family of adult children their spouses, grandkids, and their golden retrievers Mozart and Sydney.
