

Stephanie Kawasaki, Creative Visionary
Founder of Hope Inspired Solutions
Maxwell Leadership Certified Trainer/Speaker
Fascination Advantage® Certified Advisor

Stephanie Kawasaki speaks with creative vision and fresh ideas that support an engaging environment. She founded Hope Inspired Solutions, an organization dedicated to fostering a culture of belonging and community in various settings.

She retired from the federal government Department of Defense and was awarded the Presidential Letter of Appreciation culminating a 30-year career; served as a contract specialist, management and systems analyst (certified as a Lean Six Sigma practitioner and strategic business planner).

She led multiple teams to overcome complex obstacles, recognizing that communication and personalities were often central to varying challenges. She developed strategies that helped people discover and embrace their communication styles, unique value, and influence on their teams. Inspiring others led to establishing Hope Inspired Solutions, where she offers transformative team workshops. Additionally, she serves as an inspirational speaker who motivates audiences to thoughtful action.

A certified Maxwell Leadership Trainer, Stephanie imparts value-based leadership principles to clients, providing practical tools that shape influential servant leaders. She is the only certified Hawaii advisor proficient in the Fascination Advantage® System, a communication test based on branding and innovation that helps individuals create their unique tagline while discovering their organizational alignment.

For several years, she has held several leadership roles with Toastmasters International, a speaking and leadership organization. Additionally, she volunteers at her church as well as a career coach, supporting young adult women toward professional goals. Stephanie is twice a number one international best-selling co-author of the Women Speakers Association, which published the book series Voices of the 21st Century books.

She is an onscreen actor known as “Steff”; values the creative art of acting and lives an active lifestyle on purpose with purpose creating memories with family and friends, including her delightful golden retrievers, Mozart and Sydney.
