Parent/Guardian Consent Form

Our goal at The East Wake Leadership Academy is to provide students with a school year of guided cultural, academic and enrichment activities in a safe and stimulating environment.

Our intent is to provide opportunity for parents to be involved in this rich experience. Parents are encouraged to volunteer at the Academy as needed, based on availability.

Our expectation is that all students follow the Wake County Public Schools Code of Conduct as set out in the WCPS Parent and Student Manual.

Our commitment is to make this East Wake Leadership Academy experience available to any family who wishes to participate. Our services are funded by grants, and private, individual, and corporate donations and are offered at no cost to parents.

Transportation. We will pick up students from Zebulon Elementary, Wendell Elementary and Zebulon Middle schools and take them to the East Wake Leadership Academy at 948 Morphus Bridge Road, Wendell, NC 27591 for service. We welcome students from other schools in East Wake County, however, transportation from other schools must be provided by parents. All parents must pick up their children at the end of the program day.
