

Sharon Saunders Dancers Code of Conduct

The Principal, Management, Teachers, Assistant Teachers, Staff, Volunteers, Parents and Children will uphold the following ethical conduct principles at all times, and promote positive interactions within the Studio and the local community.

1. Commitment to our Studio philosophy and values, including the promotion of a meaningful connection and partnership with our families and other staff.
2. Effective, open and respectful two-way communication and feedback between employees, children, families and management
3. Honesty and integrity in all interactions between children, families, employees and managers
4. Consistency and reliability in all exchanges with children, families, employees and managers
5. Commitment to Sharon Saunders Dancers which values and promotes the safety, health and wellbeing of employees, volunteers, children and families.
6. Commitment to an Equal Opportunity Studio and culture which values the knowledge, experience and professionalism of all employees, parents and children, and their diverse heritage.