

Tell Me

By Lindsay Beaudreau

*Tell me "I love you" and I'll never wonder if you do
Tell me I am beautiful and I'll feel confidence too
Tell me I am kind and see my tender heart grow
Tell me I am perfect and really believe it's so
Tell me I am smart and I will yearn to make that true
Tell me I am strong and I will prove that through and through Tell me I will do great things and watch me as I try
Tell me I will change the world, teach me to ask "why"
These may be the best things I will ever know
Tell me them often, 100 times or so
At the end of everyday, I should always feel complete
Full of life, full of love, happy to be me.*
