

An event not to be missed!!!

Master magician Loren Poppe will captivate his audiences with mystifying illusions at the premier of his exciting new production on Saturdays this summer at Circle 119—Home of the American Legion. The family friendly shows will take place at 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. Tickets are $25 for those four years old and older, while children three and under will be admitted free. Doors open one hour before the show. Performances last about sixty minutes and there will be opportunities to meet the performers and purchase magic tricks after the show.

Tickets may be purchased in advance at
