

Policy of Joseph J. Duncan, Jr. Post 119, The American Legion, Estes Park, Colorado

The American Legion is dedicated to the support of four pillars; advocating Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation, supporting National Security, promoting Americanism, and supporting and mentoring of Children and Youth. Joseph J. Duncan, Jr. Post 119, The American Legion, Estes Park, CO, enthusiastically supports these four pillars.

Housed in Circle 119, Post 119 works to uphold our four pillars and support our community by providing a welcoming environment for all to enjoy. By Charter, we are absolutely a non-political organization. We respect the Constitutional rights of everyone in our community. With your patronage here, you are also agreeing to promote the well-being of our community and create good relations with your neighbors. Please refrain from engaging in partisan, offensive, or obscene conduct. Post 119 will not tolerate the mistreatment of any of its members or guests.

Help us maintain a positive, peaceful, and safe place for the enjoyment of all.