To who it may concern:

Matt was hired as the captain of M/Y Lady Lily in November of 2010. Over the course of these last 15 months, I have gotten to know Matt very well. I was comforted by the fact that Matt took great pride in his position as the captain of my yacht. He always insured that Lady Lily appeared immaculate and that all her systems were in good working order. At the same time he was a good steward of my money, worked hard to maximize our enjoyment of the yacht, and treated his crew with both dignity and respect. It is my opinion that Matt posses all the qualifications and attributes that one might desire in a captain, and I wish him all the best in his future endeavors.

Sincerely,
