To whom it may concern,

Matt was hired as the captain of M/Y Redemption, and served from March of 2008 until September of 2009. During which time we extensively cruised the Bahamas, U.S. and British Virgin Islands.

We very much enjoyed our time spent with Matt and the crew he assembled. Matt proved himself to be a confident seaman, and I always felt comfortable with Matt's decisions behind the wheel. He takes his responsibilities very seriously and places the utmost importance on safety. At the same time, he seems to understand the needs and desires of his guest. Matt and his crew worked diligently to maximize our enjoyment when we were on board.

To sum it up, I feel that Matt has all the characteristics and traits to make an outstanding captain. He is confident, courteous, knowledgeable, honest, and dependable. I recommend him for whatever command comes his way in the future.

Sincerely,
