About Us

The Showband of the South, J.M. Tate High School's acclaimed marching band, has a proud legacy of excellence that is known for performances at premier events like the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, the Tournament of Roses Parade, Pearl Harbour's 75th Memorial, and Ireland's St. Patrick's Festival. In 1980, the band won the inaugural Band of America Grand National Championship and returned as a finalist in 1989. The drumline and the Tate Chapparrals have competed on the world stage with the Chapparrals claiming the 1989 WGI Scholastic World Class Gold Medal.

The Showband of the South upholds excellence in performance, leadership, and tradition: instilling pride, representing Tate with distinction, and preparing students to lead with character and perform with passion.
