January 2021

Hope is not pretending that troubles don't exist. It is the hope they won't last forever. That hurts will be healed and difficulties overcome. That we will be led out of the darkness & into the sunshine.

Welcome 2021

At the beginning of this new year, I'm opting for blind optimism on the days when I just want it to all go away, tempered with a smidge of realism when I'm stronger and know we have to make a game plan for the months ahead and a healthy dose of "hang on, here we go" for the inevitable bumps in the road.

We are starting to look forward – cautiously – and think about scheduling support groups and other activities in the months ahead. We even mentioned the Turkey Supper this morning. We know it may not happen this year but when we are able to throw 20 turkeys in the oven again it will feel so good. In the past we have complained about the long day of the supper, we start early hauling in supplies and don't stop until the last dish is dried and cars are reloaded...and unloaded again. There are many helpful hands along the way but it is still a lot of work.

Those days were hard – these days are harder.

So, when you are coming through the line at the next Turkey Supper and hear us complaining about how tired we are or how much our feet hurt please feel free to remind us of the year we would have welcomed the opportunity to gather, laugh and eat pie. The year we realized how much we take for granted.

Thank you

The Tree of Lights was beautiful this year. There were hundreds of brightly colored ornaments and lights. Each ornament had a small white tag in honor or memory of your family member or friend. A simple piece of paper – a lifetime of memories. Thank you for sharing.

Welcome

The Countryside Memory Center welcomes Crystal Hanson to their team. Patients and families will meet Crystal during the memory screening process, in the support group setting and during community education programs.

Thrift Store

The Christmas glitter is almost all gone and the shelves are filled with new inventory. Thank you for your donations and your patience as we continue with restricted shopping. We are still scheduling shopping appointments or you are welcome to stop by and see if there is room for you. Masks are required and we are distancing as best we can. It is a delicate balance to keep everyone safe and the doors open, we appreciate your help.
