KABBALAH
EXHIBITION

About the Kabbalah Exhibition:
Running 13 March – 3 April 2022 at B'nai B'rith, the exhibition offers the Sydney Jewish community a unique overview of the 2,000-year social history of Jewish mysticism and Kabbalah.

SPECIAL EVENT

THE KABBALAH EXHIBITION OPENING DAY PANEL

SUNDAY 13 MARCH 2022 – 11AM-12PM

B'NAI B'RITH CENTRE 17 BARKER ST KENSINGTON NSW 2033

Join us at our special panel event marking the opening of the Kabbalah Exhibition at the B'nai B'rith Centre. The panel will share and discuss a wide range of views on Jewish mysticism, Kabbalah, and its relationship to Jewish history and tradition.

About our Panellists:

Rabbi Dr. Orna Triguboff (PhD, University of Sydney), founder of Neshama Life: "Kabbalah for the Soul", teaches Kabbalah texts in Sydney and specialises in Jewish mystical texts dealing with angels. Orna is a yoga and meditation teacher, and facilitates courses in Kabbalah text, meditation, mindfulness, and leads 10-day spiritual tours to Israel.

Rabbanit Judith Levitan is a lawyer with over 15 years' experience in the field of social justice. She is a member of the Jewish Alliance Against Family Violence, runs women's tefillah services and teaches bat mitzvah. Judith received her rabbinic ordination (smicha) from Yeshivat Maharat in New York. She is the Religious Program Coordinator at Maroubra Synagogue and a member of the Board of Directors of the National Council of Jewish Women Australia.

Dovi Seldowitz is the creator of the Kabbalah Exhibition (B'nai B'rith, 2022) and a PhD candidate studying Sociology at UNSW. His research concerns social change in religion and the growth of women's leadership in Hasidic communities. Dovi received his rabbinical ordination from the Central Lubavitch Yeshiva in Brooklyn.

THE KABBALAH EXHIBITION INTERNATIONAL LECTURE:

SEEKERS OF THE 21ST CENTURY: KABBALAH, PERENNIALISM, AND THE SEARCH FOR MEANINGFUL CONNECTION IN THE DIGITAL AGE

5PM-6PM – TUE 15 MARCH 2022 (VIA ZOOM)

B'NAI B'RITH CENTRE 17 BARKER ST KENSINGTON NSW 2033

Join us at our special international event for the Kabbalah Exhibition. Join Zevi Slavin as he journeys through the cosmology of Kabbalah to arrive at a universal, philosophy-based understanding of mysticism. This lecture seeks to answer the modern questions over the relevance of religion today, and whether mysticism can provide humanity with meaningful connection in an alienated technological world.

About our Presenter:

Zevi Slavin is the creator of Seekers of Unity, an educational project and community dedicated to a collaborative, comparative, interdisciplinary exploration of mysticism. Exploring the unity of the world's mystical traditions and the intersection of philosophy and mysticism, east and west, ancient and contemporary.
