

During Worship and Prayer

We ask that all refrain from laying hands on others for prayer. God is still able to do great things through other means, and we believe He will continue to work through His people!