A few highlights from the past few months:

Carpenter Primary Healthcare, PLLC. Dr. Terrell Cheatham-Carpenter and staff returned to the Greater Memphis Chamber post COVID to provide flu vaccines to its employees. The new office located on Main and Peabody Pl is an awesome place to visit with a staff that was friendly and welcoming. Thanks Quintin Robinson Vice President, Human Resources for working with COO Kenneth A. Carpenter Sr. to prepare your employees for flu season.

Carpenter Primary Healthcare always enjoy Halloween; we love decorating the office; wearing costumes and giving out candy to the kids at Methodist South rehab!!!! Fun time at work improves staff morale and the patients love the Halloween shenanigans 🍬🍬🍬 We are family ❤️❤️❤️

HISTORIC PHENOMENAL BEST EVER
ATTENDANCE 122;TESTED 93 Men

Kenneth A. Carpenter Sr.and Dr. Terrell of Carpenter Primary Healthcare, PLLC.

successfully organized a Men's Health Symposium with sponsors Prostate Cancer Education Conditions (PCEC), National Panhellenic Council Memphis, City of Hope-Atlanta and Alpha Memphis Education Foundation (AMEF), Man2Man Support Group and the men of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc . Special thanks to State Representative G.A. Hardaway Sr. for his support and legislation passed that require insurance companies to cover testing for men over 40 and between 40-49 if they're considered high risk. Special thanks to PCEC the nations leader in providing screening, education and awareness of this disease which is the 2nd leading cause of cancer deaths in men in this country. Also special thanks to Trust Marketing for increasing the exposure on radio and TV, giveaways from Memphis Grizzlies for donating a Derrick Rose basketball and Insta Pot Pressure Cookers from Martha and Morris Hair Salon. Black men are most likely to die from prostate cancer than any other ethnic group. Recent deaths from prostate cancer include include Dexter King, Bill Walton and OJ Simpson.
