

Celebrate Black History Month

We have had a busy month so far with lots of visitors, testing, and odd weeks with modified schedules. The craziness of February continues next week with Spring Sport Try-outs, International Festival, Book Fair, Bailey Night at Davidson College Basketball, and Black History Month Showcase. HUGE THANKS to the PTSO volunteers and families who donated food, desserts, or their time for the staff “Souper Bowl” luncheon last week.

Congratulations to Zoe Hamrick and Annabelle Compise for being selected to participate in Jr. Western Regional Orchestra! This was an audition-based, state level clinic. These students are some of the top middle school string players on the western side of North Carolina!

Thomas’ Top 5

1. No School – Students do not have school on Monday, February 19th for President’s Day. In addition, the CMS Board of Education has voted to add Tuesday, March 5th as a Teacher Workday due to primary voting at many schools.
2. International Festival – We are excited about our annual International Festival next Thursday, which will showcase 22 different countries represented by families at Bailey. The event is float-in/out style from 6:00 – 7:30 pm. Students who attend will receive a passport that can be stamped at each country and then returned to school for a grade increase in Social studies (100% on a rehearse grade in Q3). Please note that parents must accompany students at this event.

3. Book Fair – Students can begin shopping at our annual Book fair today. Book Fair will run all next week and be open on Thursday evening during International Festival as well. PTSO still needs volunteers to help run the Book fair next week, especially during International Festival. Please use the link in the flyer below to sign-up to help.

4. Black History Month – Throughout the month of February, our Step Team student leaders have developed a number of contests, special events and activities that will culminate at 9:30 am next Friday at our Black History Month Showcase. Students who won our slam poetry, poster, and art contests will be showcased. In addition, there will be performances from a number of our club groups and even a few staff.

5. Davidson Basketball

A heart felt THANK YOU to all our Bailey families that donated their time and food to last week's staff luncheon. The annual "Souper-Bowl" was a huge success, because of you! Staff enjoyed a variety of soups, chili's and baked potatoes. We had a wonderful team of volunteers! Thank you for supporting Bailey Middle!
