

- Welcome

- Budget Updates (Sabrina)
  - See Treasurer's Report

- Fundraising Updates (Morgan)
  - Book Fair: Feb 17th – Feb 24th
  - 6th Grade Dance: March 24th, 6:30pm – 8:30pm
    - This will be the “spring fundraiser” (and PJ Fridays)
    - $20 for tickets
    - Send a list of students who bought tickets on Wed. or Thurs. of that week to double check that students have a good behavior sheet
    - Need to have 2- 3 officers at the dance. (Give Sabrina officers' info so she can cut them a check)
    - Theme: Glow in the Dark. Casual. We will give them a glow item (like a necklace)
    - Will host a “Glow bar” to purchase glow items
    - Tickets will have a perforated tab to go to concessions
    - Students can get food at a food bar
    - 415 is the max capacity in the gym

- Need to finalize approach for driving ticket sales early:
      - Consider capping the participants...even if just decide to later extend the limit
      - Consider offering an incentive for buying tickets early. (Ex: additional glow item, or additional concession ticket)
    - Expenses should be low. Decorations likely $400 - $500
    - Raffles...sell at 6th grade lunches. Will announce the winners at the dance. (Ex: glow basket, LuLu gift card, Dick's gift card)
    - Request donations for snacks
    - Mr. Aiello will likely be the DJ
    - Consider leveraging Influencers: 30 per grade level, so 90 students who could help set up / decorate
    - Make a flyer for the dance
    - Sign-up Genius: need a target number of volunteers
  - PJ Days
    - $2 a day. Collect the day of at the door. No change. No coins
    - Need 1-2 volunteers to collect money at each of the three doors
    - Consider making a sign for drop-off so students remember their $2
    - Dates:
      - Friday 1/27
      - Friday, 2/24
      - Friday, 3/31

- International Night – Feb 23rd
  - 4-5 families have signed up so far
  - Venezuela, Ireland, a Spanish-speaking country
  - Melissa’s Girl Scout Troop will sign up to represent Japan
  - Before COVID, International night was very well attending with typically over 1,000 people and 20-22 groups/families representing countries. Students would visit countries/booths can complete a passport
  - Booths often have food to sample. Small samples in Dixie cups work well. Given the cost, PTSO will reimburse up to $50 with receipts.
  - Families/groups could ask a restaurant to come, advertise and donate some food
  - Melissa to contact Cornelius Elementary International Night family leaders to see if they could lead the Bailey International night

- School Support (Mary Ann and Alisa)
  - Honor Roll
    - Q2 “A Honor Roll” Breakfast – Friday, Feb 10th
