FAMILY TOURISM REGION OF MURCIA

IF YOU VISIT US, YOU'LL WISH YOU WERE A CHILD!

Welcome to a small region where you will have great fun. When you pack, besides swimsuits and inflatable water wings, please don't forget curiosity to discover amazing monuments and landscapes. You should also bring excitement in order to make the most of every instant. We'll provide you with sunshine and energy and will colour your holidays, so that you can have constant fun. And, of course, we will pamper you.

We wish you and your family enjoy the Costa Cálida - Region of Murcia, with the following appealing plans. A destination with plenty of possibilities and ideas is waiting for you to make your dreams come true. That's all folks, let's start!

SUNSHINE, BEACH AND FUN

BURIED IN SAND AND FEELING GREAT

LA MANGA
AND MAR
MENOR

Beaches for children

When summer arrives, the little ones of the family long to make sand castles, run by the sea and jump over the waves. Costa Cálida offers a double enjoyment for the whole family: we have two seas, the Mediterranean and the Mar Menor. Moreover, we have beautiful fine sand beaches with warm, shallow waters, where we provide you with enjoyable activities specially aimed at your children. That's cool! You families can enjoy here either a relaxing or an entertaining holiday. What do you prefer?

We have a wide range of beaches, all of them with excellent additional facilities, nautical sports, recreation areas, restaurants and everything you can imagine... We have everything for everyone. In La Manga del Mar Menor stands out the Cala del Pino and the Playa de la Isla; in San Pedro del Pinatar the Playa de Villananitos; the Playa del Castillico in Santiago de la Ribera and the Playa del Espejo in Los Alcázares.

Sailors for a day

If you're adventurous and love to sail the seas, go on board. We suggest a thrilling family boat ride on any of the boats which offer sea excursions throughout the year. One of the routes borders the five islands of the Mar Menor. Another sails the Mediterranean to the Isla Grosa in order for you to contemplate beautiful seabeds from the boat. The trip takes about two hours and includes a snack on board. Besides, the ferry regular lines link Santiago de la Ribera and La Manga, providing a pleasant sea trip and unique views of the islands Barón and Perdiguera. The best is definitely the joy of the youngest members of the family.

At full sail

Do you enjoy windsurfing or sailing? Get ready since the Estación Náutica Mar Menor - Cabo de Palos offers a great variety of water activities and services for the whole family. More than 20 nautical stations at your disposal, so that you can learn, improve or simply enjoy kitesurf, water skiing, canoeing, motorboat racing and diving all year round. You wish to stay here? Perfect. The Estación Náutica also offers more than 16,000 tourist beds and travel packages including accommodation, nautical activities and the possibility to rent equipment.

Beach of Cala Cortina

Come to Cala Cortina, a beach which is 4 km away from the city of Cartagena, with 250 m of coarse, golden sand. Take advantage of its great facilities and seaside promenade to go for a pleasant walk. Isn't it amazing? This beach also has a children's playground, picnic area, loungers, sunshades and, in addition, a restaurant. A few metres from the seashore there's a natural islet where you can enjoy diving. Fantastic!

ÁGUILAS

Beaches of Águilas

The Playa de la Colonia, inside the town, is open to the south and partially sheltered from the east wind due to the castle promontory extending to the jetty. Here were the old fishmonger's, the west port and the typical balnearios. Surrounded by gardens, palms, and recreation, sports and children's areas. The Playa de Poniente, the Playa de Matalentisco and the Playa de las Delicias are also perfect for adults and children because of their parks, nautical and leisure activities.

A railway history tour

Don't miss the entertainment train! Visit with your family the old Lorca-Baza-Águilas railway line which is shown in the Railway Museum in Águilas. Placed in the basement of the passenger building of the locality's old station, these premises were used as archive and strongbox by an English company called 'The Great Southern of Spain Railway'. The big train model in operation will delight your children for sure. And you too, of course.

MAZARRÓN

Beaches of Mazarrón

Do you feel like having a rest by the seashore, or lying on the sand for a while? You definitely deserve a break. The bay of Mazarrón is an idyllic place. Its urban sections, filled with facilities, are combined with almost wild coves, which are apart from the summer hustle and bustle. The Playa del Castellar, in Mazarrón Port, seems to have been specially designed for children. It has fine, clean sand and shallow waters which allow for pleasant bathing for everyone.

Among dolphins

Have you ever watched cetaceans at sea? You shouldn't miss this opportunity, which will be an impressive experience with your family. We suggest a sea excursion across the bay of Mazarrón on board a restored Turkish gulet which is 20 metres long. It's show time! You'll sail and look for different dolphin species: common dolphin, striped dolphin, bottlenose dolphin, long-finned pilot whale, Risso's dolphin and, occasionally, fin whale and sperm whale. A great variety. The boat excursion can take a day, a weekend or a week.

CULTURE WITH YOUR FAMILY

LEARNING TOGETHER IS VERY COOL!

Are you curious? Just go with the flow. You can be explorers, archaeologists, historians or scientists. It was never so exciting to discover with your family some spots from the past and look for magical misteries. Visiting the cities of the Region of Murcia and contemplating its treasures and rich cultural heritage has no match. You can walk through Murcia, the eternal spring capital, discover Cartagena, a city with more than 3,000 years of history, travel through time in Lorca, the city of one hundred coats of arms... Shall we start?

MUSEUMS,
MONUMENTS
& MUCH
MORE

Murcia, rocked by magical desert and sea winds, is a land where arid landscapes and green orchards form a coloured tapestry. Put on a smile. You have arrived to a paradise with plenty of palms and mild weather where you'll be welcomed with open arms. This city, bathed by the river Segura, should be enjoyed on foot. Museums and monuments, events and shows are close at hand. Going along the history of the Baroque period, walking through delightful streets and squares while tasting a marvellous cuisine... It is the perfect city to be discovered by families. Let's go!

Science and Water Museum

Would you like to see the sky as you never saw it before? The place for that is the Science and Water Museum. It has been integrated in the network of municipal museums belonging to Murcia's City Council, and since 1996 it encourages curiosity and explains scientific knowledge to the public in an entertaining, interactive way. On the planetarium's dome you'll see on the dark sky the Milky Way, the main stars, the constellations, the planets and the Moon. Suitable for all audiences. Minimum recommended age: 8.

CARTAGENA

PORT OF CULTURES

Would you like to conquer the past, interact with history and disembark at a millenary city open to the Mediterranean? It is possible. Cartagena is a Punic and Roman city, a military enclave, an art nouveau setting... A Port of Cultures where the sea is a source of amusement, civilisations, traditions and legends. A destination to enjoy together. Try experiences which will make a lasting impression on you and you will discover a destination bearing the Turismo Familiar seal, awarded by the Large Family Spanish Association. Quite a guarantee.

What to see? Just everything. Let's start an excursion through time, slow but steady. Discover the Punic Wall of Carthaginian origin. Visit the Roman Theatre, the Roman Forum Neighbourhood, the House of Fortune and the Augusteum. Go along the walls of the Concepción castle, from the Middle Ages, and the Navidad fort, witness of a glorious military past. Recover recent memories at the Shelter-Museum of the Spanish Civil War. Use the tourist transports to go through the city. The Boat, the Bus and the Panoramic Lift will provide you with different views of Cartagena.

Children's workshops that make history

Are your children restless and vivacious? They will learn while they play at these workshops aimed at the little ones of the family. They will also become principal actors for a day at each of the museums. They will be pirates, secret agents, Roman soldiers, archaeologists and all they want. Easy-peasy.

Illustrious dramatised visits

Don't be surprised about finding Scipio Africanus when you turn the corner. Maybe Augustus or Alfonso X, called the Wise, will accompany you during your visit. The great characters of Cartagena's history will appear to show you the important legacy of civilisations that settled at this port, revealing their secrets, legends and amazing stories. Sh! Listen carefully.

Whole route with your family

Cartagena Port of Cultures offers a route to go through the whole glorious past of the city in just a few hours. You'll visit the most relevant monuments and discover how theatres used to be in Roman times, contemplate enemy boats from the Homenaje tower of the Concepción castle, and learn how to use a cannon as if you were a soldier of the 19th century at the Navidad fort. All year round. Paying activities; please book in advance.

LORCA

WORKSHOP OF TIME

A weekend at the Fortress of the sun

Are you ready? Use your vivid imagination to enjoy the most exciting experiences at the Fortress of the Sun, the perfect stage to travel through the past hand in hand with many different characters. Children and adults will be real protagonists. Would you like to know how a castle used to be in the Middle Ages? We recommend you go for a walk with our guides through the remains of the Jewish quarter at the castle's Archaeological Park, visit the Sinagogue and go up to the city's highest spot on the Espolón tower, or make a typical cake at the cuisine workshop. Book in advance and you will enjoy a great visit including a tasting of the season set meal at the 'Caballerizas del Castillo'.

This border city, declared as a Historic-Artistic Ensemble in 1964, preserves its glorious past with its medieval, renaissance and baroque architecture, so that you can enjoy here your own history.

CARAVACA DE LA CRUZ

Small scale or music tone

Does size really matter? Here yes. The smaller, the better. In the centre of Caravaca you will find the Ángel Reinón Miniature Ethnographic Museum. A place for children to learn in an entertaining way about traditional trades by means of more than 400 exclusive pieces with formal perfection, made of iron and wood. A good way of finishing your day will be to visit the Ethnic Music Museum in Barranda, which shows a complete collection of instruments from all five continents. You'll see and listen how much fun you can have here.

JUMILLA

A castle and one thousand stories

Open your heart to new experiences inspired by aristocrats and princesses of the past. The castle of Jumilla is one of the most wonderful spots in the Region of Murcia to be visited by families. We recommend you go into its dungeons, through its yard and along different rooms: 'sala del bastimento', 'sala del alcaide' and 'sala de la tropa'. You'll be surprised about the views offered by one of the best viewpoints in the region. Before you, a magical landscape among vineyards.

- Harvest with your family
- Most of the vineyards offer visits to their wineries and wine tastings. But in Jumilla, this is not just for adults. If you decide to enjoy a family holiday here, the little ones of the family will have lots of fun by treading on grapes. In addition, they will enjoy entertaining exhibitions, educational tours and many a game which will help them learn about vineyards and the work of vine growers in every season of the year.

TOTANA

Go into a pottery workshop

Now you'll get a bit dirty. All hands on deck! This place is famous for its pottery and ceramic handicrafts. A deeply rooted activity which has given name to many streets in Totana: Ollerías, Tinajeras... And which left its imprint on the traditional Arabic ovens. Visiting a pottery workshop is going into a magical world where the potter can create any object from a piece of clay. Do you want to try? Besides enjoying performances by the master potter, you can participate in workshops of introduction to clay. Children will enjoy to the full while learning about some old trades of the region.

La Bastida, the western Troy

Would you like to be like Indiana Jones but without a whip? Take the chance to show your expertise at La Bastida in Totana, the most important known archaeological site of the Argaric culture. How were tools at the time? Check it thanks to the findings of copper, bronze, silver, gold, stone, bone and pottery. You'll be definitely impressed when you see this astounding fortification, unique of its time, which has given the town the name of 'the western Troy'. It lacks the famous wooden horse but has many a story to be told.

MULA

Roman past and use of water

Do you feel like visiting a villa of the Roman times? Go ahead. One of the best examples can be found at Los Villaricos archaeological site, which can be visited throughout the year. Discovering habits of Hispania by means of the remains of this Roman villa with oil mill, thermal area and Early Christianity necropolis will be more entertaining than your history lessons.

Just 10 km away from the centre of Mula you can enjoy with your family a small oasis preserving Roman sites related to the use of water. The Fuente Caputa natural spring will invite you to have a swim in summer. Its water fountains give name to this setting, since Caputa comes from the Latin caput, meaning storage. It is always time to learn something new, right?

A medieval town among birds and candles

Do you enjoy falconry? On the third Saturday of July, Aledo becomes a medieval village with a traditional street market for parents and medieval workshops for children. It includes an exhibition of exotic animals and the flight of birds of prey for the youngest members of the family at the castle's square.

Do you like going to bed late? The next-to-last weekend of August we celebrate 'the sleepless night'. The old town is only lighted up by thousands of candles and torches. Aledo seems to be the village of a fairy tale. Wind music, classical music, dances, theatre shows and poetry readings complete an extraordinary event for all senses and all audiences.

CIEZA

Amazing rock paintings in La Serreta cave

If you love art, you'll enjoy lots of abysses and caves of great natural and cultural importance which are by the Almadenes canyon. La Serreta, declared to be a World Heritage Site, is a real sanctuary of civilisations and one of the best Murcian rock art exhibition halls, with fifty figures of Neolithic schematic art that have been perfectly preserved.

Even if we're not talking about children's drawings on the walls, your children will enjoy them as much as you will. Discover the secrets and mysteries of the distant past. Fascinating!

Moreover, an old Muslim village of the 11th century houses the most important Islamic archaeological site in Europe: Medina Siyâsa. Some 4,000 inhabitants settled there in 750 dwellings. The archaeological remains can be peacefully contemplated at the Siyâsa Museum.
