

Privacy Policy for Blink Immigration Inc.

Blink Immigration Inc. ("we," "us," or "our") is committed to protecting the privacy of our clients and website users. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard personal information in accordance with the laws and regulations of Canada, including the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) and other applicable privacy laws.

1. Scope of the Policy

This Privacy Policy applies to all personal information we collect from individuals ("you") who interact with our services, including immigration consultation and legal representation, both online and offline. It covers how we manage and protect your personal data.

2. Collection of Personal Information

We collect personal information necessary to provide our immigration services. The types of personal information we collect may include, but are not limited to:

- Contact Information: Name, email address, phone number, mailing address.
- Identification Information: Passport details, social insurance number, national identity number.
- Immigration Information: Immigration status, application details, past immigration history.
- Financial Information: Payment details, financial records, or any supporting documents for immigration processes.
- Family and Employment Details: Family members' details, employment history, and other related information for applications.
- Health Information: If relevant to the immigration process (e.g., medical examinations).

We collect this information directly from you or authorized third parties (e.g., legal representatives, government agencies, previous employers, or educational institutions).

3. Use of Personal Information

We use your personal information for the following purposes:

- To provide immigration consultation and legal services.
- To communicate with you regarding your case, applications, or inquiries.

- To submit applications and documents to immigration authorities or other relevant bodies.
- To meet regulatory and legal obligations, including compliance with immigration laws.
- To process payments and issue invoices.
- To improve our services, including assessing client satisfaction and case outcomes.

4. Consent

By providing personal information to Blink Immigration Inc., you consent to our collection, use, and disclosure of that information as described in this Privacy Policy. You may withdraw your consent at any time, subject to legal or contractual restrictions and reasonable notice. However, withdrawing consent may limit our ability to provide services to you.

5. Disclosure of Personal Information

We may disclose your personal information to third parties in the following circumstances:

- Government Authorities: Immigration agencies, courts, and other governmental bodies as necessary for processing immigration applications.
- Service Providers: Third-party service providers who assist us in delivering services (e.g., couriers, translation services, payment processors), under confidentiality agreements.
- Legal Compliance: To comply with laws, regulations, subpoenas, court orders, or other legal processes.
- Business Transactions: In the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of the company, where personal information is part of the assets transferred.

We will not sell, rent, or trade your personal information to third parties for any commercial purposes.

6. Protection of Personal Information

We employ reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect your personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. These measures include:

- Secure file storage (physical and electronic).
- Encrypted communication (e.g., for email exchanges and file transfers).
- Limited access to personal information to authorized personnel only.

While we strive to protect your personal information, no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is completely secure. We cannot guarantee its absolute security.

7. Retention of Personal Information

We retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected, or as required by law or regulation. When your information is no longer required, we will securely dispose of or anonymize it in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

8. Access to and Correction of Personal Information

You have the right to:

- Access your personal information held by Blink Immigration Inc.
- Request corrections to any inaccurate or incomplete personal information.
- Withdraw consent for the use of your personal information, subject to legal or contractual limitations.

Requests for access, correction, or withdrawal of consent must be made in writing to the Privacy Officer listed below.

9. Cross-Border Transfers

Your personal information may be processed and stored in jurisdictions outside of Canada, including the United States or other countries. When transferring information across borders, we ensure that it is protected by appropriate safeguards in compliance with Canadian privacy laws.

10. Cookies and Online Tracking

Our website may use cookies to improve the user experience. These cookies do not collect personal information unless you provide it voluntarily (e.g., through forms or registration). You may disable cookies in your browser settings, but doing so may affect the functionality of the website.

11. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices, technology, legal requirements, or other factors. The updated policy will be posted on our website, with the effective date of the most recent revision indicated at the top.

12. Contact Us

If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding this Privacy Policy or how we handle your personal information, please contact our Privacy Officer:

Privacy Officer

Blink Immigration Inc.

Email: privacy@blinkimmigration.com

By using our services, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this Privacy Policy and agree to the collection, use, and disclosure of your personal information as described herein.