

Amped Up Mobile Charging, LLC
Privacy Policy
Effective Date: July 31, 2025

Amped Up Mobile Charging, LLC (“we,” “our,” or “us”) collects personal information such as your name, phone number, email, service location, and vehicle details when you contact us or request services. We may also automatically collect limited technical data such as IP address, browser type, and website usage to improve our services.

We use this information to provide mobile EV charging services, respond to inquiries, communicate with you, and improve our operations. If you request service, we may use your location information to dispatch our mobile unit. We do not sell your personal information. We may share information with trusted service providers (such as payment processors or dispatch tools) or when required by law to protect our business and customers.

We take reasonable steps to protect your information, but no online system is completely secure. Our website may use cookies or similar technologies to enhance your experience and analyze traffic. You may opt out of marketing communications at any time and request access to or deletion of your personal information by contacting us below.

Our services are not intended for individuals under 18, and we do not knowingly collect information from children. We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time, and updates will be posted on this page.
