• Back Story

"MOUNTAIN MAN" is a tribute to all our Mountain Men & Women Family/Friends, from the North Carolina/Virginia mountains to the Montana Rockies (I was stationed in Montana for 3.5 years in the U.S. Air Force.). "MOUNTAIN MAN" is our first production in the Bluegrass genre, so hope you enjoy the cadence of the mountain rhythms & instruments. Thank you for supporting this musical endeavor ... Song will be available on major streaming platforms ... Aloha, Dale & Jeanne

"Mountain Man" Lyrics

(1st Verse)

America was born, wild & open land
Stories around the fire, of a Mountain Man
A man of courage, a man who survived
Lived by his wits, crossed ridges & thrived
Reading the forest floor, searching for game
Huntin' & trappin' ... Mountain Man was his name

(Chorus)

Mountain Man, & Mountain true
Living high above, near God's sky blue
A man who was sturdy, wily & strong
High on the mountain, where he belonged
Nature was his church, nature kept him fed
Beholding to no one, Mountain bred

(2nd Verse)

Few men could survive, the winter cold
Resolute men, full of grit & bold
Building a log home, from the forest trees
Warmed by a fire, & cooled by a breeze
The mountain man lived, a simple life
Some lived alone, others had a wife

(Chorus)

Mountain Man, & Mountain true
Living high above, near God's sky blue
A man who was sturdy, wily & strong
High on the mountain, where he belonged
Nature was his church, nature kept him fed
Beholding to no one, Mountain bred

(3rd Verse)

From Southern Virginia to the Rockies out west
Survival of the fittest, only the Mountain best
Living in the Blue Ridge, & Appalachian chain
From Alabama in the South, up to northern Maine
And the Montana Rockies, to New Mexico
His only reason to leave, to sell furs below

(Chorus)

Mountain Man, & Mountain true
Living high above, near God's sky blue
A man who was sturdy, wily & strong
High on the mountain, where he belonged
Nature was his church, nature kept him fed
Beholding to no one, Mountain bred

(Outro)

His echo is often heard, carried in the wind
His essence flows, at every river bend
Some still exist, in the hills of this land
You'll know him, when you see him
Mountain Bred ... Mountain Man
