

RISING R&B ARTIST

MATT HARMONY

ABOUT

MATT
HARMONY

They say today's R&B is not what it used to be, Matt Harmony begs to differ. He comes with pure God-given talent, he is a mix of a Contemporary R&B artist and a classic vocalist in the mold of Prince or Michael Jackson. Those are humungous names to be compared to, but Matt gladly welcomes anyone who doubts that he can sing as well as some of the greats.

Matt Harmony's music is a blend of mid-tempo R&B sounds, with a new-age touch on it. He is careful to hit each note to perfection to provide the listener with a unique experience. As much effort & energy as Matt puts into the making of his music, it pales in comparison to the joy and passion he puts into his performances.

MY STORY

Matt started performing at the age of 13, he sang in a church choir at Little Bethlehem Narrow Way Church in Covington, Ga. People were blown away by the soulful voice and sensual sound of such a young man. In the summer of 2009, he began gaining his first recording experience. He sold 1500 copies locally of his first single "Kiss You Goodnight". He then started touring and performing at a lot of local venues and open mics in the Atlanta, Carolina and Tennessee.

His consistent work ethic landed him his first record deal in 2012 with local label Get Money Records. That deal lasted for 3 years and spawned a few records that did well locally such as, Break Of Dawn, Sexaholic and Girlfriend. This period of free agency allowed Matt to write songs for local artists and as social media emerged, find different ways to market himself. The creation of cover songs by Michael Jackson and others led to Matt going viral and that exposure gained him his current distribution contract with Sony Orchard Distribution.

Has also performed under: Matt Harmoni, DHarmony, Matthew Shepherd.

Matt's main goal is to covert attention from his covers to highlight his fantastic song writing, song making and vocal diversity.
