

ICAgile Leading With Agility

The nature of leadership has changed. The longstanding top down, directive style of leadership is not successful in the current, adaptive work environment. These environments require a paradigm shift in leaders and their understanding of what constitutes effective leadership.

WHAT IS LEADING WITH AGILITY?

This set of Learning Outcomes focuses on developing leaders who are adaptive and agile in their leadership style.

This is a workshop that do not require learners to have prior knowledge or certifications of lean agile thinking. However, this is not a merely a beginner's workshop. This workshop is valuable to anyone wishing to learn about the paradigm shifts necessary to lead in adaptive environments, and to develop relevant leadership capabilities.
