

Anthony Needs Laundry

INT. Main Character Apartment - Day

After the main character shows Anthony that his clothes are clean and folded, Anthony begins talking again.

ANTHONY:

Look at that; you're already ahead of the game! Welp, I still got laundry to do, so I'll see you later.

Anthony begins turning away from the main character before stopping and turning back to ask them a question.

ANTHONY (CONTD):

Hey, since I have a lot of laundry I need to wash, would you mind helping me out? I'd super appreciate it.

The Player looks at their calendar to see if they have time to help Anthony with his laundry.
