While our thanks in this note are directed toward capital funding, please know that we're also grateful for your support on other fronts. When our students know their representatives care about them and their schools, they have a more positive view of their community. Students today want to know who has their backs, and we're so glad to note that you are on their side. We're deeply grateful.

Thank you again for your support. We look forward to keeping you informed on the progress made possible by your efforts and to working with you in the future to continue improving opportunities for all students.
