Nourish the Seeds of our Faith

The past two Sundays, we heard proclaimed parables where our Lord teaches us from images of a farmer sowing seeds in the field. Of course, Jesus is not giving us advice on how to grow our summer vegetables.

Jesus uses these images to teach us about faith. We must nourish our faith, as a farmer cares for the seeds in his fields. We must also be aware of those things in life that can damage our faith.

Do I feed the garden of my soul with the sacraments? Do I nourish my soul with prayer and the Eucharist? Do I confess my sins, and strive to live a life of mercy, forgiveness, and compassion? As your garden at home needs water and sun and rich soil for your plants to grow, so your soul needs prayer, the sacraments, the Holy Mass, the Eucharist, and works of mercy, for your faith to grow. Reflect also about what can damage the seeds of our faith. Where are the rocks and weeds and thorns in my life? Do I need to remove the thorns of pride, greed, lust, anger, sloth so my faith can grow?

In the Gospel this Sunday Jesus reminds us that the enemy of our faith is real - Satan. Jesus also affirms that hell is real, an eternity of separation from God. At the end of Gospel Jesus says: "whoever has ears ought to hear." This week Jesus provides an important mid-summer lesson. Pray for the grace to nourish the seeds of our faith and remove the weeds and thorns that keep us away from God.

God Bless you and your family,

Fr. Vince

NUTRAMOS LAS SEMILLAS DE NUESTRA FE

En los últimos dos Domingos, hemos escuchado parábolas en las que nuestro Señor nos enseña a través de la imagen de un agricultor que siembra semillas en el campo. Por supuesto, Jesús no nos está dando consejos sobre cómo cultivar nuestras verduras de verano. Jesús utiliza estas imágenes para enseñarnos sobre la fe. Debemos nutrir nuestra fe, tal como el agricultor cuida las semillas en sus campos. También debemos ser conscientes de aquellas cosas en la vida que pueden dañar nuestra fe.

¿Alimento el jardín de mi alma con los sacramentos? ¿Nutro mi alma con la oración y la Eucaristía? ¿Confieso mis pecados y me esfuerzo por vivir una vida de misericordia, perdón y compasión? Así como el jardín de su casa necesita agua, sol y tierra fértil para que las plantas crezcan, su alma necesita oración, sacramentos, la Santa Misa, la Eucaristía y obras de misericordia para que su fe crezca. Reflexione también sobre qué puede dañar las semillas de nuestra fe. ¿Dónde están las piedras, la maleza y las espinas en mi vida? ¿Necesito quitar las espinas del orgullo, la codicia, la lujuria, la ira y la pereza para que mi fe pueda crecer?

En el Evangelio de este Domingo, Jesús nos recuerda que el enemigo de nuestra fe es real: Satanás. Jesús también afirma que el infierno es real, una eternidad de separación de Dios. Al final del Evangelio, Jesús dice: “el que tenga oídos, que oiga”. Esta semana, Jesús nos ofrece una importante lección a mitad del verano. Recemos para obtener la gracia de nutrir las semillas de nuestra fe y eliminar la maleza y las espinas que nos alejan de Dios.

Que Dios te bendiga a ti y a tu familia,

Padre Vicente
