

Notice of No Trespass – Private Property of the Living

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal.

Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent.

No Trespass – Private Property – County of Beverly

Let it be known:

This land, dwelling, and private post are under the lawful stewardship and spiritual authority of the living woman known as felisha-marie: beverly, and are part of the private estate of the County of Beverly, non-domestic, without the United States.

No assumed jurisdiction, commercial process, or administrative action is permitted on this land or at this location without written agreement and express invitation.

All names or legal fictions presented in ALL CAPITAL LETTERS (such as FELISHA M. BEVERLY) are disclaimed and rebutted. The living woman does not consent to any offers, claims, demands, or service.

Any attempt to:

- Serve documents
- Solicit contracts
- Survey or inspect
- Enter the land
- Leave notices

— Trespass in any manner

Will be treated as a willful trespass, spiritual harm, and a violation of private estate peace.

Fee Schedule:

$100,000 (one hundred thousand silver dollars) per act of trespass, attempted service, or violation of private estate notice.

$1,000,000 per breach of spiritual boundary or dishonor of this notice.

Invoices shall be sent to the agent or principal by name, oath, and bond number.

All communications must be made by private registered mail only. No phone calls, surveillance, or verbal contracts are permitted.

CAF No. 0316-22460

Private Contact: Postmaster, County of Beverly (Private realm of Peace) in care of : felisha-marie: beverly., in care of:

P.O. Box 624 Wittensville, Kentucky

near [41274] non-domestic, without the United States

Date Posted: November 22, 2024

By: felisha-marie: beverly, living woman, steward and postmaster of the County of Beverly

All spiritual rights reserved, non-assumpsit, without the U.S., without prejudice.