

Subject: Introducing Marina Rafael: Elevate Your Publication With Exquisite Handcrafted Luxury

Hi Halie,

I recently stumbled upon your captivating article on Harper's Bazaar, titled "The 25 Best One-Piece Swimsuits for Summer," and I loved how your expert curation of the finest one-piece swimsuits showcased both fashion and functionality. By providing a comprehensive guide to the best one-piece swimsuits, you have undoubtedly become a go-to resource for fashion-forward individuals looking to make a splash.

I am reaching out to suggest my client, Greece-based designer, Marina Rafael for a story. The 25 year old Swarovski-heiress is known for designing modern-luxury statement totes, bags, and clutches, recently launching her line Marina Raphael at its first US retailer, Neiman Marcus.

Marina can speak on building a million dollar business at the age of 24, growing sales 420% during the pandemic, being a member of the Swarovski crystal family, dressing celebrities such as Jennifer Lopez, Megan Fox, and Rita Ora, and more.

- The full Marina Raphael collection at Neiman Marcus features 13 bags
- All handbags are available via Skimlinks through Neiman Marcus.
- All bags are sustainably manufactured in Italy; sustainability report available upon request.
