Crew and Passenger Registration

ATTENTION! MUST BE COMPLETED AND SENT IN WITH DRIVER REGISTRATION!

Grand Prix drivers and motorcycle riders may have 3 crew members in the pit area with them. Crew members are required to wear their wristbands at all times or may be asked to leave the pit/paddock area. All other guests must be outside of the pit/paddock area. This rule is strictly enforced! To reserve wristbands, please fill out the information below.

Lunchtime Touring drivers may have one passenger. Passengers must wear their wristbands at all times or may be asked to leave the pit/paddock area. NOTE! Safety equipment, or fire retardant driver's suites are NOT required in this group.

REMEMBER! All Grand Prix race car passengers must wear an approved Nomex fire retardant driver's suit with a minimum of 2 layers. Nomex underwear is suggested but is optional. Fire resistant socks and gloves made of leather and/or fire retardant material and without any holes are required. A Nomex or equivalent balaclava is highly recommended especially for drivers with beards or mustaches or using open-faced helmets. Driving shoes with uppers made of leather or nonflammable materials are required. No sneakers or street shoes allowed.

All passenger and crew members must sign a liability waiver before they will be allowed to enter the pit/paddock area or ride in a car. Waivers will be available at the drivers' meeting and registration.

Consult the website for up-to-date information on the drivers' meeting and registration location.
