

ORIENTATION TRAINING QUIZ

1. What are the key elements of the admission process for a new youth arriving at the facility?
2. Why is it important to document all personal belongings during the admission process?
3. Describe three key points that should be covered during the facility tour.
4. Why is it important to explain emergency procedures to new youth, and what is one specific example of what should be covered?
5. Explain the importance of a structured but supportive environment in relation to behavioral expectations.
6. What are the staff's responsibilities regarding medication handling?
7. List three items typically included in the Youth Orientation Packet.
8. What should staff do to ensure the youth understands the daily expectations and services?
9. Why is it important to provide youth with a written handbook upon admission?
10. Explain why a thorough orientation process is essential for the youth as well as the staff at the facility.

Staff Acknowledgment

I confirm that I have completed the Orientation Training and watched the required video.

Staff Name: _____

Date: _____

Supervisor Signature: _____