What an unbeatable weekend at Street Dance convention and Competition! Finishing up the weekend with a truly phenomenal first-place win in the teen group ballet division! Third place in lyrical, duo trio, teen category with top 10 highest scorer! We will be going home with three platinums and three high goals! I am overflowing with pride for these young ladies!

We are exceedingly proud of the GTTP Company kids for their outstanding performance at the Youth America Grand Prix (YAGP) last weekend. As a New York-based non-profit dance education organization, YAGP aims to support and develop world-class dancers, aged 9-19, from diverse economic, ethnic, and geographic backgrounds by providing scholarship auditions, performance opportunities, and educational experiences. It was an honor for us to participate in their semi-final competition in Dallas and engage in masterclasses led by distinguished faculty members, including Kelly Boal, Faculty at Pacific Northwest Ballet and Former Soloist at New York City Ballet, among other esteemed judges and instructors. We were particularly proud to be one of only three dance studios from Louisiana and the sole representative from Central Louisiana. We extend our sincere gratitude to YAGP for a truly unforgettable weekend.

Summer Intensive Spotlight!

We are delighted to congratulate GTTP senior dancer Naomi Pollock on her acceptance into Ballet Magnificat!'s esteemed summer intensive, a transformative program that draws talented students from around the world and offers rigorous technical and spiritual growth. We are proud of you!

We are delighted to congratulate GTTP senior dancer Camille Hamilton on her acceptance to Chicago Ballet's summer intensive! Ballet Chicago's mission is to educate and inspire young artists through the study of classical ballet, and in so doing, to lay a foundation of life skills that empowers each one to realize their full potential. We are very proud of this beautiful young dancer!

Congratulations to GTTP's 13-year-old senior dancer, Payton Dauzat, on being accepted to the prestigious Boston Ballet summer intensive program, a top 10 ranked program that requires rigorous auditions and technical skill. We are very proud of Payton and look forward to Payton's future accomplishments.

We are proud to announce that our senior level dancer, Lily Hetterwick, has been accepted to attend the prestigious Rock School of Dance Education's summer intensive program. The Rock School for Dance Education is renowned as one of the world's top pre-professional training institutions, attracting dancers globally with its exceptional faculty, individualized attention, nurturing environment, and successful alumni, boasting over 30 years of excellence. Congratulations to Lily on representing the exceptional talent present in Central Louisiana.

Community Spotlight!

Our GTTP dancers were able to share their talent with the art community in Alexandria.

GTTP senior leveled dancer Lily Hetherwick has been selected to perform a solo with Collage Dance Collective. We are proud of Lily for being chosen following a rigorous audition process against other talented dancers in the area. We are excited to collaborate with this esteemed dance company and encourage all GTTP students to support Lily and come see this amazing professional dance company! Thank you to the Arts Council of Central Louisiana for bringing this amazing company to Alexandria!

GTTP students participated in a Masterclass held by the Arts Council of Central Louisiana. Our students were taught by Collage Dance Collective's Artistic Director, Kevin Thomas. He has performed with Dance Theatre of Harlem, Les Grands Ballets Canadiens, Royal Ballet in London, Complexions Contemporary Ballet in New York and Fleming Flindt and Peter Schaufuss in Denmark and more. He has also appeared on Broadway in The Phantom of the Opera.

New Orleans Ballet Theatre brought Dracula to Coughlin-Saunders Performing Arts Center. Several of our dancers auditioned and were chosen to be part of the performance.

Members of the GTTP Competition team performed for the crowd at the Arts Council's Fall ArtWalk 2024
