

Heaven's conversation

Is that you, dear friend?
Is that you whispering to me?
Is that your voice?
Is that you encouraging me?

I believe so. I know so.

Do you have the time for such ventures from beyond?
Do you have the desire to speak to me?
Do you have words for your old best friend?
Do you speak to me at times like this?

I believe so. I know so.

Are you still with me?
Are you here more than ever?
Are you paying attention to such as me?
Are you praying for me?

I believe so. I know so.
