

Study Guide for Quiz COS 423 Mission

The Core Process of the Church

Meaning of Christ and Culture

“Person in Community”

The relationship of grace to social holiness for John Wesley

John Wesley’s commitment to the poor and evangelical economics

The Reign of God or Kin-dom of God as an image for the transformation of the church and world

Christian approach to power and anger

The difference between mercy and justice from Christian Mission:

Cross cultural boundary crossing local level in creative tension with universal framework translatability / vernacularization / inculturation

Christendom / worldwide, multi-cultural Christianity women missionaries and challenges to patriarchal customs indigenous women as boundary-crossing evangelists

St. Patrick and Bernard Mizeki, cultural boundary-crossing missionaries

From A Public Faith

religious political pluralism prophetic religion

malfunctions: idleness and coerciveness human flourishing, flourishing life approach to dominant culture: adopt some elements, transform some and reject some

“the Christian faith has received wisdom every time the gospel has been translated into another language and taken root in a different cultural environment.” (p 112)

radical Islam differentiated from Islam

Which scripture from class:

Luke 4:14-30, Deuteronomy 26:1-15, Isaiah 58:1-14, Amos 5:18-24, Micah 4:1-4, Luke 10:25-37, Romans 12, Acts 10:1-11:18, 2 Corinthians 5:16-21, Matthew 25:31-46, most inspires you to step out in mission and work for justice? How would you use it to inspire your congregation to seek to work for justice or transform the world?