PIZZA PLACE

EST. 1990

(It’s a play on Ebenezer Bryce saying Bryce Canyon was “a helluva place to lose a cow.” We think it’s clever.)

The Pizza Place was established in 1990 by Bart and Peggy Palmer. The special recipes that made The Pizza Place a success have now been handed down to their children, and they continue to make the best pizza in southern Utah (in our biased opinion).

Life is short... start with appetizers

Peg's famous cheesy breadsticks — $5.50

Our most popular appetizer!

Homemade dough, topped with mozzarella cheese and herbs, served with a side of pizza sauce and homemade ranch for dipping. Comes in six slices, but sharing is optional.

Add any topping for $1 each

Artichoke Beignets — $6

Four artichoke hearts with Bourgin cheese inside a panko-parmesan crust. Served on a bed of marinara topped with fresh basil.

Tossed Boneless Chicken Wings — $9.50

Breaded, boneless wings tossed in your choice of BBQ, Buffalo, Sweet Red Chili, or Mango Habanero sauce. Served with ranch or blue cheese.

Tossed Chicken Wings — $9.50

Six lightly breaded wings and drumettes tossed in your choice of BBQ, Buffalo, Sweet Red Chili, or Mango Habanero sauce. Served with ranch or blue cheese.

Garlic Bread — $5 add cheese for $1

Toasted hoagie bun topped with garlic butter and herbs. Served in four pieces.

"I don't know who Peg is, but I would literally cry if I got to meet that incredible woman face to face. She made some good breadsticks."
