CONSTITUTION RESOLUTIONS DEADLINE

CUPW National Convention – Call for Resolutions

The CUPW National Convention will be held in May 2027 in Toronto.

The National Convention is where the membership has the opportunity to shape the direction and policies of the Union. More than 600 delegates will come together to reaffirm their commitment to the ongoing struggle to defend and regain our right to negotiate and our right to strike. National and Regional Officers, as well as Union Representatives from across Canada, will also be elected at the Convention.

In preparation for the Convention, members are invited to submit suggestions and proposed changes to the CUPW National Constitution and Union Policies in the form of resolutions.

Members wishing to submit resolutions concerning the CUPW National Constitution or Union Policies are asked to submit their proposals in writing to the Scarborough Local Union Office no later than 5:00 p.m. on September 5, 2026.

The Local Union Office will compile all submissions for presentation at the September Membership Meeting, where they will be discussed and voted upon.

Note: To have a proposed resolution forwarded to the Ontario Regional Conference for consideration, the resolution must first be adopted by a majority vote of the membership at a Local Membership Meeting.
