HEALTH CANADA MODIFIES BORDER ZONES BETWEEN FRONT-OF-PACKAGE NUTRITION SYMBOLS AND SUPPLEMENTED FOOD CAUTION IDENTIFIERS AND FOR FOODS PACKAGED IN AN ASSORTMENT

Informing you of important documents that affect your labelling strategies

Health Canada (HC) has amended the buffer zone specifications in the Directory of Supplemented Food Caution Identifier Specifications and the Directory of Nutrition Symbol Specifications for the Front of Package (FOP) nutrition symbols the Supplemented Food Caution Identifier as the available display space can have an impact on displaying both the symbol and statement on Supplemented Foods. The same goes for consumer prepackaged foods that contain an assortment of foods with multiple FOP nutrition symbols displayed on the label.

HC has amended each of these tables by adding the footer "The minimum buffer zone between a nutrition symbol and a supplemented food caution identifier, or between nutrition symbols, that are labelled contiguous can be 0 mm."

WEBINAR TESTIMONIALS

"Course content is extremely relevant to clarify and explain the ins and outs of nutrition panel composition and use; to meet the requirements of the new regulations coming into force.
\he presenter and his group are second to none when it comes to clear presentation of requirements as well as real life examples so everyone understands.

After the webinar they provide relevant links and printed resource materials which will help build a full library of regulatory information to use to create your panels"

"Gary is truly an expert in Canadian food regulations. There is not a question that he cannot find a solution to.

I would recommend his course to anyone looking to strengthen their understanding of the Canadian regulatory landscape."
