Recipe of the Month from Kinsley's Shoprite

Easter Bunny Cake

Ingredients:

- No-stick Cooking Spray
- Bowl & Basket Canola Oil Cooking Spray, 8 oz
- 3 1/4 cups All-Purpose Flour
- 2 cups Granulated Sugar
- 2 1/2 tsp Baking Powder
- 1 tsp Salt
- 2 tsp Vanilla Extract
- Bowl & Basket Vanilla Wafers, 11 oz
- 3/4 cup Unsalted Butter, softened to room temp
- 4 Eggs
- 1 1/4 cups Whole Milk
- 1 Container Vanilla Frosting
- Pillsbury Funfetti Unicorn Vanilla Frosting, 15.6 oz
- 3 1/2 cups Sweetened, Shredded Coconut
- Food Coloring
- Twizzlers Pull 'n' Peel Cherry Candy

Directions:

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees and spray two 9" round cake pans with no-stick cooking spray. Set aside.
2. Combine your dry ingredients (flour, baking powder, salt) in a medium bowl until well mixed.
3. In a separate, larger bowl, beat the butter and the sugar until pale and fluffy, about 2 minutes. Beat in eggs, one at a time, until fully incorporated, then beat in vanilla.
4. Add half of the flour mixture to the butter mixture and gently stir or fold to mix. Add the milk, whisk until smooth, then add the rest of the flour mixture and whisk once again until a smooth batter forms. Divide batter between the two cake pans, then bake at 350 degrees for 30-35 minutes or until golden and a toothpick inserted into the center of cake comes out clean.
5. Remove from the oven and let cool for 5 minutes before gently removing cakes from pans to finish cooling completely on a wire rack.
6. Take one of the cooled round cakes and carefully cut out the bunny "ears". Do this by cutting a pointed oval shape out of each side of the cake, leaving the middle pieces as the bow tie.
7. Place the other round cake in the lower third of your serving plate. Place ears above the cake round, trimming off the bottom edges of the ears so that they sit flush with the head. Place the bow tie shape below the cake round/head.
8. Use the vanilla frosting to frost the cakes and secure them in place on the serving platter.
9. Dye 1 cup of shredded coconut pink (if desired) and use to create the inside of the bunny ears and coat the bow tie. Use the remaining white shredded coconut to coat/cover to create fur.
10. Decorate with candy! Use your favorite candies to create the eyes, whiskers and mouth. We used licorice for the whiskers, candy coated chocolates for the eyes and for the bow tie buttons but get creative and use whatever you have on hand!

Tip: Use your favorite box cake mix or bake from scratch!

There's something truly special about bringing generations together. Our St. Paddy's Day Party with our friends was a perfect example of the importance of inter-generational programming. Seniors and children came together for a fun, interactive story, a festive craft, and—most importantly—meaningful socialization. Moments like these create lasting memories, spark joy, and build connections that benefit everyone involved. The laughter, conversations, and shared experiences remind us just how powerful it is when generations learn and grow together. We're so grateful for days like this and the smiles they bring!

How to Teach Kids About Stranger Danger

Safety Awareness is crucial to instill in your children, but teaching kids about safety can be a fine line to walk. You want your child to understand, making them fearful of the world around them. How do you strike that balance?

Why Teaching Stranger Safety Matters:

Children are naturally curious and trusting, qualities that make them vulnerable to exploitation. It's important for kids to understand how to recognize potentially unsafe situations and respond appropriately. By focusing on empowerment rather than fear, you give your child the tools to stay safe while still encouraging healthy social development.

Focusing on Tricky People, Not Just Strangers:

Children often think strangers look scary or bad, when in reality, unsafe individuals may appear friendly or familiar. Instead of telling kids to avoid all strangers, many child safety experts recommend teaching them to be cautious of "tricky people". These individuals who ask kids to break safety rules, keep secrets from parents, or do something that feels wrong. This approach shifts the focus from labeling people as good or bad to recognize behaviors that signal potential danger.

Make Safety Lessons Part of Everyday Life:

You don't need to set aside a formal lesson time, instead, weave safety conversations into daily life. For Example:

- Role-play what to do if someone offers them a ride.
- Practice saying no loudly and clearly.
- Walk through safe routes home or to school together.
- Reinforce that, it's always OK to ask questions if something feels off.

Encourage Open Communication:

Make sure your child knows they can talk to you about anything. Reinforce that they won't get in trouble for telling the truth about an uncomfortable situation.

Use Tools that Reinforce Safety:

The Polly Klaas Foundation is dedicated to protecting children and supporting families with free resources. For more information, contact The Polly Klaas Foundation at their 23/7 hot line, 800-587-4357.
