Do you want to take your date somewhere fun and different? There are many romantic restaurants in the DFW metroplex but you have the option to be different and plan a nice little picnic on the Trinity river in Fort Worth. A picnic on the river will show your date that you are creative and romantic, and it sets you apart from the average guy.

The first thing to do is to let your date know that you will be going on a picnic so that she can wear something appropriate. Make sure you have a picnic blanket to set out on the ground so you aren't sitting directly on the grass. Pick up your date and head down to the Central Market in Fort Worth off of Hulen and I30. Central Market has an excellent selection of picnic type foods for you and your date to choose from. They have everything from salads and prepared meals to sushi and a large variety of wine and cheese. They even have a "dinner for two". Central Market also has an amazing bakery for some after dinner delights.

Once you and your date have picked out your meals and purchased them at the checkout stand, it is time to head to Trinity Park. Trinity Park is just a couple exits away from the Central Market in Fort Worth. Head west on I30 and exit University. Go north on University, Trinity Park will be on your right. There are plenty of places in the park to set up a picnic. The best place is on the bank of the river. This offers a semi-secluded spot with an excellent view of the river and downtown Fort Worth.

After finding a nice spot, set out a blanket and enjoy the picnic with your beautiful date. Take time to enjoy the outdoors, the view, and the company. Make sure that your date is comfortable and having a great time. There is plenty to talk about when you have such an amazing picnic spot with a great view.
