

The Asian Art Society of Monterey Bay

"My Half of the Sky" TUESDAY NOV. 14, 2017

Bring Your Friends!

The Park Lane, 200 Glenwood Circle, Monterey

Optional Dining Room Luncheon 11:30 AM

Complimentary: Social-Desserts-Coffees-Teas 1:00 PM

Lecture-Slide Show-Book Sales/Signing

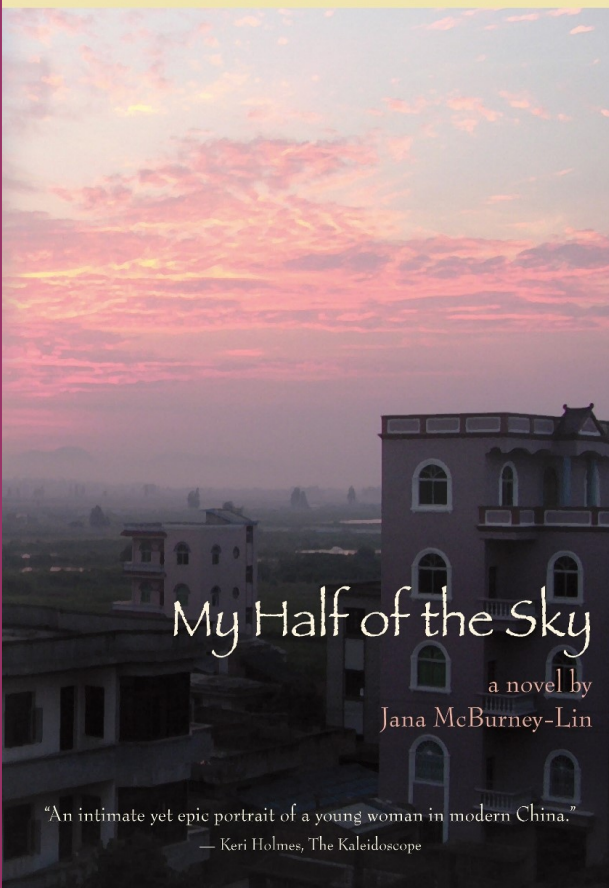

Vista Room—7th Floor

Mao said that women “Hold up half the sky”. When there is no son, the only daughter, Li Hui, must take care of the family. Author Jana McBurney-Lin lived for 15 years in Asia. She brings her characters to life in this book of the constant conflict between modern day life and Chinese culture and rich traditions.

Jana wrote for media in 7 countries, including National Public Radio (NPR), Writer’s Digest, Islands Magazine, United Airlines Hemispheres, Singapore Straits Times, Japan Times and dozens of other publications. She was an editor at ALC Publishing in Tokyo, founded the Writers Camp for Kids, and was President of the Peninsula Branch of the California Writer’s Club.

2006 BOOKSENSE PICK

Optional Luncheon 11:30 AM

Join us for a tasty optional Luncheon in the 1st floor dining room at 11:30 AM, seating on the right side. $10.95 plus tax paid by Check or Cash at the lobby front desk afterward...NO Credit cards. Choice of soup or salad, main course, and dessert. $5 wine, $4 Beer. Iced tea & coffee included in full meal. Reservations Required: Name/Phone by Nov. 9th to Lois Herschede 831-373-0312 or LoisHerschede@comcast.net

Directions to the Park Lane

Driving North on Hwy One, exit 401A Aguajito Road, Turn left under Hwy One. Turn left at the next stop light, and you’re facing Hilton Garden Inn. Turn left at the stop sign onto Glenwood Circle, drive 0.7 Miles (passing a football field on your right, and many apartments on your left). The last building on your left, cream and gray, 7 stories tall. Street, parking lot, or underground parking.