

CTPS Board Meeting April 7, 2024

Attendees: Jane Copeland, Jan Frazier, Esther Jones, Therese McHugh, Cynthia Bsaibes

This was a Zoom meeting. We began at 7:05.

- Secretary motioned for approval of March minutes sent out April 7, 2024 via email.
- We voted to approve the March board and general meeting minutes.

Treasurer's Report:

- We have a balance of $3955.09.
- We owe Paypal $35.
- Jane and Debbie will meet tomorrow to resolve the payment to Paypal.

April Meeting:

- Elections will be held.
- When our new president and workshop share are on board, we should discuss what other board members we need.
- Jody Martin is our demo artist.
- Jane will bring the fundraiser paintings so that artists can pick up their paintings.
- Therese said she could put these paintings on our website, so that artists can reclaim the painting.
- The challenge painting topic is eggs.
- Jane will bring a video for the door prize.
- Cynthia will bring a basket and paper for door prize drawing.
- Jane will see if we can reserve the Community Room for September.

- She will also check to see if a room is available in October at the library.

May meeting

- Jane will host a gathering at her place.
- She will cancel the reservation at the library for May.

Possible Future Programs

- Therese suggested we have a mini workshop where members paint, and a guest artist gives advice as we paint.
- Jane suggested that the current board make suggestions for the incoming board.
 - September - possible workshop
 - Painting session with critique
 - Painting demo

October

- In person activity possibly using youtube.
- Perhaps we should look at current IAPS instructors for possible demonstrators. Cynthia has created a list to share at future meetings.

Jan Frazier discussed possible exhibits.

- She has checked with several organizations in our area.
- She applied for the library exhibit for 2025. Theme - Drawn to Morning Light
- The airport exhibit is on hold for now due to remodeling at Bergstrom Airport.
- She has checked with The Hive at the Galleria. They are remodeling/relocating.
- The Downtowner Gallery in Round Rock doesn't exhibit group art.
- Art Works is a possibility in January 2025.
- One bright spot. Jan spoke with Lynn Kiessel, WCAG President, about exhibiting in the front room at the gallery on Rock Street. Lynn will discuss with her group and get back to Jan.

- St. David Hospital exhibit is coming up from June 7 to August 9.
- She will check with Georgetown Arts Council to see if we can have a tent at the annual event, Arts on South Main. If we do this, we will ask members to serve a 2 hour time block in the booth/tent.
- Jester Annex - we are steering clear of because of low traffic.