General Meeting Minutes

February 19, 2022

The Central Texas Pastel Society General Meeting met at the Georgetown Public Library February 19 at 9:30 am. Seventeen members were present in the library and 11 were present through Zoom. President Jane Copeland presided and Esther Jones managed the Zoom connection.

Mary Olivera had the CTPS monogrammed aprons available for purchase.

Treasurer Debbie Been was unable to attend the meeting so her report was given by Jane. There are current available funds of $4671.08.

Exhibition Chairman Jan Frazier presented a report on the upcoming exhibit at St. David's Hospital Healing Arts Gallery in Georgetown. Jan requested that submissions be sent to her by this Monday. The gallery is a ministry to the hospital for patients and their friends and family so all work should be family friendly and positive. Wire is needed on the back of each piece for hanging. Art is to be delivered to the hospital on March 4 at 1:30 pm and picked up on May 6 at 1:00 pm. CTPS's fall exhibit will be held at Arts Works Gallery on W. 6th Street in Austin.

Workshop Chairman Julia Fletcher was unable to attend Saturday's meeting, but she is considering a plein air Workshop with Bruce Gomez this fall and asking him to judge our fall exhibit as well.

A pastel book by Richard McKinley was given for a door prize.

The program was given by Ann Nelson Sweat who critiqued 19 pieces of art. The membership had submitted their paintings on line along with their reference photo. 17 of the artists brought their pieces to the library for the critique.

The meeting adjourned at 11:30 am.

Respectively submitted,

Sandra Slaughter
