

Central Texas Pastel Society

General Meeting Minutes March 19, 2022

The Central Texas Pastel Society met March 19, 2022 at the Georgetown Library and via Zoom. There were 12 members physically present and 13 members joined by Zoom. Esther Jones expertly handled the Zoom connection.

President Jane Copeland called the meeting to order at 9:40 am.

Treasurer, Debbie Been gave the treasurer's report. Available funds are $4,690.95.

Our upcoming elections were discussed. Debbie Been, Barbara Chenault, and Mary Olivera will be stepping down from their positions. So, we are in need of a Treasurer, Secretary and Membership Chair. Debbie Pidgeon volunteered to be the Treasurer. Barbara Chenault described the duties of Secretary and Mary Olivera talked about her job responsibilities as Membership Chair. Elections will be held in May to give more time for volunteers to come forward.

Challenge paintings were then viewed. This month the theme was "water." There were 8 challenge paintings submitted.

The door prize, a set of Richeson turquoise green pastels, was won by Allie Bennett. The pastels were donated by Therese McHugh.

Enid Wood gave a demonstration on painting a sunflower on Zoom.

Respectfully submitted by,

Barbara Chenault
