

CENTRAL TEXAS PASTEL SOCIETY

Meeting Minutes

May 15, 2021

The Central Texas Pastel Society held its final meeting of the year via Zoom. President Jane Copeland called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m. Twenty-five members signed on.

CTPS had two winners in Marble Falls Paint the Town event May 2-8. Kathy Meador won 3rd place in the main event and Jan Frazier won 1st place in the Quick Draw. Nancy Lilly has a solo show at Cappy's Restaurant in San Antonio May 3 – June 21.

A discussion was held on critique groups. Any member interested in joining a group this summer should email Jane and she will try and organize one. Many positive comments were made on the advantages and pleasures in belonging to a critique group.

The Challenge Painting theme was Spring Theme. Fourteen paintings were submitted. Members held a brief discussion on each work. Allison Bennett was the winner of the Challenge Painting drawing.

Artist Lyn Asselta joined us via Zoom from her home in Maine for a demonstration on painting landscapes with rocks.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:15 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra Slaughter, secretary
