

yatri motorcycles

Tired of repetitive month end procedures? Ready to pull your sleeves up and innovate the finance processes at technology driven company? We are in the look out for a seriously high achiever to help us head the finance department who will overlook Financial Planning and Accounting (FPNA).

Responsibilities:

- Build out an innovative finance processes ground up to deliver fast, accurate and compliant results.
- Ambitious and pushes to improve the speed and quality of information into the hands of decision makers.
- Setting up and overseeing the company's financial management system.
- Preparing and submitting monthly, quarterly and annual taxes.
- Play a managerial role where she/he will oversee all accounting activities.
- Work closely with Cost Engineers and Development Engineers in Cost Reduction Program.
- Coordinating with external auditors and if necessary leading the audit process.
- Applying your broad skill base to any challenges arising in the team.
- Take initiative to identify weaknesses and opportunities in how we do things and drive growth and robustness of the finance function.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's/Mater's degree in Finance/Accounting.
- 5 years + experience in a professional services environment, or equivalent industry.
- Whiz with financial management tools e.g. MS Excel and other similar tools.
- Possess exceptionally good communication skill.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks and meet stringent deadlines, have strong planning and organization skills, be a creative and strategic thinker.
- Excellent knowledge of English.