A New Year of Being Made New Pastor Weinkauff

"And He who was seated on the throne said, 'Behold, I am making all things new!'" (Rev. 25) Notice the tense of the verb spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ in the verse above. It is not past or future, but present. He doesn't say I have made or will make all things new, but I am making all things new! That is very significant, my friends, for it assures us that our Lord Jesus Christ is no absentee landlord, but an active Savior and very present help in our time of need. It is true that He "made all things new" by His death and resurrection and that He "will make all things new" on the Last Day when He returns in glory, but it is equally true that He is, even now, "making all things new."

He is "with us always" just as He promised to be. He continues to do mighty things in our presence, gifting us with forgiveness, life, and salvation through the precious means of grace He Himself established—His Holy Word and Sacraments. As we continue to come into His presence and receive these gifts from His gracious hands, He continues to make us new, preserving us as His beautiful and immaculate Bride, perfectly holy and righteous in His Father's sight. It is this glorious truth, this beautiful promise, this awesome reality, which allows us to transition into a new earthly year without fear, and full of confidence. We don't know what lies ahead for us in this new year, but we do know that nothing—not financial difficulties, not broken relationships, not illness or injury, not even death—can separate us from the love God has for us who are continuously made new by His Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord (Rom. 8). For that reason, we can rest assured that this new year (like all new years) will be one of extraordinary blessing for us, for it will be a new year of being made new by our Lord.

Thus, let us resolve to heed the exhortation given us in Hebrews and "consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near" (Hebrews. 10). For it is when we "meet together" in the Divine Service that our Lord washes us clean in His Blood and makes us ever new.

We all have an amazing year ahead of us. The Lord is with us. How can it be otherwise? Our congregation has many joyful matters before us in this new year. I commend you all to be fervent in prayer for all that the Lord has set before us to attend to in our homes, in our vocations, in our congregation. May the Holy Spirit work upon us all for renewed "zeal for the Lord's House" (Psalm 69), to read and study His Word, and our lives of service to others!

Blessed New Year!

Favorite Christmas Hymn Kantor Schreiber

I often get this question: "Kantor, what is your favorite hymn?" This is a fair and honest question, after all, I may seem supremely qualified to offer this input knowing that my opinion comes off the back of ten years of playing the hymns, six of those years being regularly for a Church job. In addition, my time at the University included hours of hymn study and hymn playing strategies, practices, techniques, ideas. This is, of course, all in addition to my personal appreciation and love for our Lutheran "canon" of hymns. However, as many of you who have asked this question in the past know, the answer is this: "I don't have a favorite, there are too many to choose from. However, my greatest appreciation is for the hymns of Paul Gerhardt." Many are familiar with the name, some are familiar with his vocation as a Pastor in Germany and the societal circumstances which he had seen throughout his life. Because of great turmoil and rampant death during his lifetime, Gerhardt's hymns preach to a different Christian than those of Luther and the Reformation Era. Instead of a militant and godly-rebellious people, Gerhardt is the Shepherd of the defeated and dying. This has created a totally different affect in his work. Next time you see Gerhardt's name at the bottom corner of the hymn page, of the language used. Call to mind Luther's classics, and search for those affective differences which Gerhardt and Luther showcase.

Paul
Gerhardt
1607-1676

Chief among examples are Paul Gerhardt's Christmas Chorales in LSB, "All My Heart Again Rejoices" and "O Jesus Christ, Thy Manger Is." These hymns as we see them in our hymnal feature texts that are "... rich in imagery that is faithful to the original." (From The Lutheran Service Book: Companion to the Hymns Volume 1) Gerhardt's focus is clearly different from many of the Anglican hymnists who have created some of the most recognizable hymns and carols for Christmas. He makes no mention of the Christ-child's "tender and mild"-ness, nor the lowing cattle, nor does he speculate on the weather patterns in Bethlehem at the time of Christ's incarnation. Rather, we hear about what the Incarnate God means for us Christians: Hope. He is not dealing in matters of preservation from "Pope and Turk", but rather preservation from eternal death. I will leave you with a mere glimpse of these beautiful texts, so you will have to find them in your hymnal for the remaining beauty. "Softly from His lowly manger Jesus calls one and all, You are safe from danger. Children, from the sins that grieve you, you are freed; All you need I will surely give you." "The world may hold her wealth and gold; But thou, my heart, keep Christ as thy true treasure. To him hold fast until at last a crown be thine and honor in full measure."

Begins
Jan. 22
5 pm.

Adult Catechism Class Pastor Weinkauff

Starts Jan. 22, 5 pm. "Evangelism" that is, Good News, this Scriptural truth shows us is: preaching, teaching, study of God's Word faithfully, liturgical worship, the proper use of the Sacraments, the daily living out of our faith in Jesus Christ, in the fellowship of the body of Christ, and in love toward others. This is the appropriate, effective means for sharing the faith, confessing Christ, and "growing the Church." That is why we should consider it a joy to share with others -what we have at Risen Savior that the gift of our Lord they are missing or being mis-taught. Now is the time to think of some people to invite/encourage to "look into" Risen Savior, perhaps bring them to the classes. Invite family and friends to visit Services, Bible classes, and activities at the church. Share with them about Risen Savior. Don't assume others would not be are interested.

"When an abortion is performed, we proclaim that we know better than God. We disregard His wisdom, for He taught us that we should never kill innocent human beings. We proclaim that we do not want or need a gift from God. And in doing so, we seek to make ourselves more powerful than God. We seek to make ourselves God. Christians are to love their neighbors, including the unborn. This means we can and ought to pray for the unborn, for women who have the choice of preserving or ending the life of their unborn child, for women who have had abortions and who need forgiveness in Christ—freely given through faith, for abortion doctors who are directly responsible for killing these children, and for our governing officials."
