Longsuffering!

Pastor Weinkauf

"The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth" Exodus 34. Longsuffering? What do you think about with that word? These last 11 months of the Pandemic for various reasons?! An 1:45 Voter's Assembly? (It is good to engage matters, with a unanimous vote to Call a 2nd Pastor with 100 people there.) But it all pales in comparison, as usually think 'longsuffering' is to see: loved ones who suffers chronic pain; those who endure battles for years with cancer and disease; those who live with, endure daily battles against sinful desires.

Exodus 34, Greek Old Testament uses the word there 'makrothuma' longsuffering. Also 1 Cor. 13:4: "Love is patient..." The word 'patient' is also: 'makrothuma.' Also used in our Lord's Parable of the Persistent Widow, Luke 18:1-8, as Jesus speaks of God's elect which cry to Him day and night, says Jesus own 'makrothuma' that is, the Lord long-suffers with His people as they are invited and called by the Lord to consistent and daily prayer to Him. In 2 Timothy 3,4, the Apostle encourages his fellow pastor, "preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience ('makrothuma') and teaching."

Rev. Lockwood in his commentary on 1 Corinthians states: that 'makrothuma'...is marked "not so much in the expression as in the extension of emotion, the drawing out, taming, literally the 'lengthening' (makro-) of emotion. The Christian is not short-tempered, but longsuffering with others."

Christian long-suffering obviously is not a self-cultivated virtue! It is part of the fruit of the Holy Spirit, noted in Galatians 5:22. 'Makrothuma' comes from and has its roots in the Lord's long-suffering, bearing long with us all. St. Paul declares: "But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display his perfect patience 'makrothumia' as an example to those who were to believe in him for eternal life." 1 Timothy 1.

'Makrothumia' (Long-suffering) is so needed in this short-tempered world we live in. We see and live this! Again, Rev. Lockwood comments on 1 Corinthians 13: love is long-suffering: "In the fast-paced, achievement-oriented world entering the third millennium, when the spirit of the age tempts churches to look for quick and impressive results, it is salutary to reflect on the priority Paul accords to the love which expresses itself in being longsuffering, a love that can wait."

'Long-suffering' is a synonym for the divine love and mercy given to each of you, because of the Lord's perfect 'makrothumia' that is given you by grace. He is with you. Always. Never alone. Longsuffering as you wait upon Him, His works.

Office of the Holy Ministry

Vicar Christiansen

Matthew 28:16-20: You've heard it before, and you may have heard it called "The Great Commission." But who's being addressed here? Is it every Christian? Who's being told to make disciples of all nations? It's the eleven disciples, before Matthias is chosen to replace Judas Iscariot. The twelve Apostles worship Jesus when they see him, and Jesus gives the Apostles a charge of their future vocation, a job description of sorts. In response to any doubt, Jesus promises that His own authority was given to Him. God the Father sent God the Son, Jesus, to suffer and die in place of sinners, so that His resurrection would give sinners eternal life. God the Holy Spirit delivers these to the sinners in Holy Baptism and the Lord's Supper, instituted by Jesus on the authority of the Father. And now that authority is charged to the Church, to the Lord's Apostles, as a command: Disciple-ify!

The eleven disciples are being sent, and it's fitting that they are called "Apostle," for the Greek verb apostello (Greek: ἀποστέλλω) means "to send." The Apostles are the ones sent by Jesus to be his undershepherds (Latin: pastor): to proclaim Christ's crucifixion and resurrection, to teach the Holy Scripture, to baptize and to forgive sin. Jesus gives these gifts to the whole church, and sends these ordinary men to distribute them. Notice the parts of disciplining: First, the pastor is to baptize in the Triune Name, and second, to keep-on teaching the Church to observe and receive what Christ has commanded. Infants are baptized, and are taught for the rest of their life. The third part of being Christ's disciple is the command to "Take, eat!" and "Drink of it, all of you." Take a look at Matthew 26:29, at what Jesus says right after He institutes the Lord's Supper: "when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom." When Jesus promises "I AM with you," Jesus claims to be God, to be both the "I AM" of Exodus 3 and also the "I AM the Bread of Life" of John 6. Jesus points to the real presence of God from Isaiah 7 and in Matthew 1: "God with us." Jesus is declaring the real presence of His Body and Blood in the Lord's Supper, which is for all people's forgiveness and reconciliation to God.

This great sending of the Apostles is good news for the whole Church. This charge to the Apostles is the call to become pastors; it is the Office of the Holy Ministry. These men are ordained by the giving of the Holy Spirit in Acts 2, when the Holy Spirit is given to the Church for these men to preach Jesus, and for the rest of the Church to hear. This pattern is exactly what the LCMS pastoral call system is modeled after. Pastors are ordained to preach, teach, and distribute the Sacraments, very much like how the Old Testament men are appointed: Samuel hears God calling him, and says "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening" (1 Samuel 3). Like all pastors, the prophet Isaiah is a sinner, a man of unclean lips, but God ordains that Isaiah will serve God's people, and God sends an angel to touch Isaiah's lips with a burning coal. Maybe we should do that to the new pastor?

Pastors are sent when they receive God's call. Philip, after teaching and baptizing the Ethiopian eunuch, is sent by the Holy Spirit to serve God's Church elsewhere. The Lord's shepherds are sent after they hear Jesus and learn from Him, just as Vicar Kinney studied God's Word at the Seminary and has now been sent to become an ordained pastor. It's the same for Vicar Christiansen, who needs to hear and receive God's forgiveness, and may someday become a shepherd too. It's the same for the second shepherd who will hear the call of the Holy Spirit, and be sent to the flock at Risen Savior. The Lord's undershepherds need life, salvation, and forgiveness of sin as much as the sheep do. Thanks be to God that they too hear and receive the loving presence of God and His grace in the Holy Scriptures and Sacraments.
