Church, the Sacrament and Love. Pastor Weinkauff

Martin Luther wrote: "Whoever is in despair, distressed by a sin-stricken conscience or terrified by death or carrying some other burden upon his heart, if he would be rid of them all, let him go joyfully to the Sacrament of the Altar and lay down his woe in the midst of the community of saints and seek help from the entire company of the spiritual body.

Then we may with joy find strength and comfort, and say, "Though I am a sinner and have fallen, though this or that misfortune has befallen me, nevertheless I will go to the Sacrament to receive a sign from God that I have on my side Christ's righteousness, life, and sufferings, with all holy angels and the blessed in heaven and all devout men on earth. If I die, I am not alone in death; if I suffer, they suffer with me. I know that all my misfortune is shared with Christ and the saints, because I have a sure sign of their love toward me.

Here your heart must go out in love and learn that this is a Sacrament of love. As love and support are given you, you in turn must render love and support to Christ in his needy ones. You must feel with sorrow all the dishonor done to Christ in his holy Word, all the misery of Christendom, all the unjust suffering of the innocent, with which the world is everywhere filled to overflowing.

You must fight, work, pray, and — if you cannot do more — have heartfelt sympathy. See, this is what it means to bear in your turn the misfortune and adversity of Christ and his saints. Here the saying of Paul is fulfilled, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ" [Gal. 6:2]. (Luther's Works, vol. 35).

How true according to the Scriptures. When people do not gather at the Church, it is hurtful to them, body and soul. And how difficult to serve their spouse, family, friends, fellow workers unless they have already been fed and nurtured by our Lord? Nothing in this world can fill the void that only Christ can fill by His Word and Sacraments. In our Lord's Church, you find the love and support to carry on in this broken world, and in return you provide that care to others by showing Christ's love to them.

INVITE family and friends to visit Services, Bible classes, events at the church, to come and see what happens in this place; what sadly so many miss out on having Sacraments which our Lord commands and His Word taught in its truth and purity. Share with them about Risen Savior. Don't assume they are not interested and certainly don't think if they already have a church and there is no need; perhaps bring them to the class starting Sept. 12.

"God shows us what it is to love every single day. Even the grace He gives us to change people's hearts toward Him is an outpouring of His love. Let us love like Christ and sacrifice our time to save His unborn children. Let us show mothers who have had or are thinking of having an abortion the love that has been so beautifully bestowed upon us from our Father.""
