COLLECT OF THE DAY - ancient prayer of the Church based upon the Scriptural theme of the day [P] Almighty God, our Father, Your blessed Son called Luke the physician to be an evangelist and physician of the soul. Grant that the healing medicine of the Gospel and the Sacraments may put to flight the diseases of our souls that with willing hearts we may ever love and serve You; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
[C] Continued with sung “Amen”, p. 189

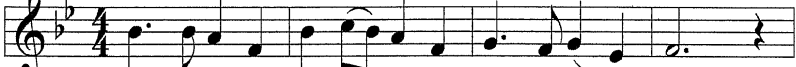

OLD TESTAMENT Isaiah 35:5–8
Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then shall the lame man leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute sing for joy.
For waters break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; in the haunt of jackals, where they lie down, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Way of Holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it. It shall belong to those who walk on the way; even if they are fools, they shall not go astray.

EPISTLE 2 Timothy 4:5–18 Pastoral encouragement As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing.
Do your best to come to me soon. For Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. Luke alone is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is very useful to me for ministry. Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus. When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will repay him according to his deeds. Beware of him yourself, for he strongly opposed our message. At my first defense no one came to stand by me, but all deserted me.
May it not be charged against them! But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion’s mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

HOLY GOSPEL Luke 10:1–9 Sending disciples to proclaim the Kingdom After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. And he said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.
Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house!’ And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick in it and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’”

Please turn to follow the Processional Cross; you may bow † in reverence to Christ.

RISEN SAVIOR LUTHERAN CHURCH

Basehor, Kansas - Lutheran Church Missouri Synod

FEAST OF ST. LUKE, EVANGELIST OCT. 18, 2026

Welcome to the Lord's

House. St. Luke, "the beloved physician" (Col. 4:14), did "the work of an evangelist" (2 Tim. 4:5). He diligently prepared both a Gospel, the history of Christ's work in the flesh before His ascension, and Acts of the Apostles, the history of His continued work among His Church. Tradition suggests that Luke was one of the 72 sent out ahead of Jesus, "two by two" (Luke 10:1).

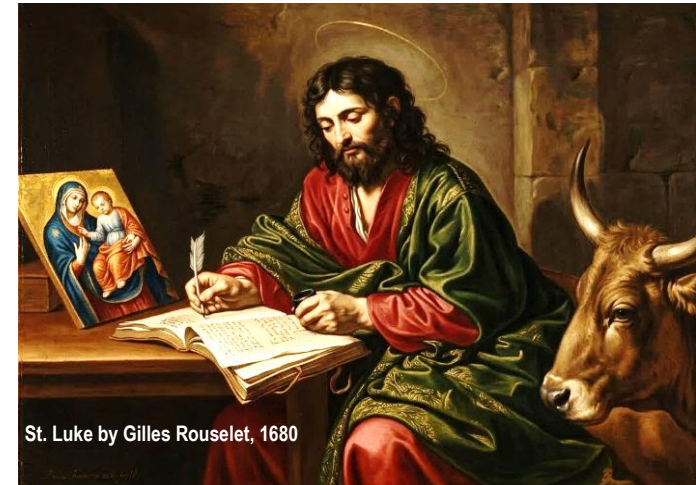

Luke proved himself to be a faithful companion throughout St. Paul's missionary journeys, through many trials and crosses, and even to Rome, where he alone was with Paul.

Since the Early Church, on Oct. 18 we thank and praise God for His servant, St. Luke, a companion and fellow-worker of St. Paul. St. Luke's Gospel emphasized God's universal salvation and mercy for sinners; most of what we know about the Christmas story comes from Luke, as well Jesus' infancy and boyhood. The parables about the Lost Coin, the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son are found only in Luke. Luke also records 3 of the 7 sayings on the cross that other gospels omit as well as the story of the repentant thief. Luke shows the great compassion Jesus has for sinners, for tormented, and downtrodden people. He shows Jesus dealing with Samaritans, despised tax collectors, lowly shepherds, for the poor and for the ill and disfigured. Luke puts special emphasis on women and the important role that they play in the ministry of Christ. To show how Christ continued His work, Luke also penned the Book of Acts. The Lord bless this Divine Service.

As the Church properly celebrates throughout the ages, we do not worship saints or call on the dead, but rather give thanks to the Lord of the Church for the blessings He has brought us through their life with us, their service, and example. According to Scripture, "saints" also applies to those living, not an extraordinarily good person, but a person made holy by redemption in Christ, that is, any believer. This will protect us from any tendency to emphasize the virtue of any person, and keep our faith focused on Christ alone. As commended by Scripture, it is always fitting to remember the example of those who bravely contended for the faith so we may be encouraged as their example.

Grant that the healing medicine of the Gospel and the Sacraments may put to flight the diseases of our souls that with willing hearts we may ever love and serve You.
COLLECT OF THE DAY

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today, in the confession, as Jesus says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread, wine but His very real, true body, blood to eat, drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him, and with one another. According to Scripture, Holy Communion is also a public confession of faith, sharing a unity in doctrinal belief; also those who eat, drink our Lord's body, blood unworthily or without discernment do so to their harm. In love towards God and our neighbor, according to Scripture, the Church has always practiced a closed communion. Therefore, in love and pastoral concern for guests, if you are not a member of the LCMS and desire to receive the Sacrament, please speak with the pastor first.
