

INTROIT - entrance Psalm of worship, sung by God’s people for thousands of years Psalm 86

- P Be gracious to me, | O Lord,*
for to you do I cry | all the day.
- G For you, O Lord, are good and for- | giving,*
abounding in steadfast love to all who call up- | on you.
- P Incline your ear, O LORD, and | answer me,*
for I am poor and | needy.
- G In the day of my trouble I call up- | on you,*
for you | answer me.
- P I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with | my whole heart,*
and I will glorify your name for- | ever.
- G For great is your steadfast | love toward me;*
you have delivered my soul from the depths | of Sheol.
- P I will bless the LORD at | all times,*
his praise shall continually be | in my mouth.
- Continued with the 'Gloria Patri', p. 186*

COLLECT OF THE DAY - ancient prayer of the Church based upon the Scriptural theme of the day

- P O Lord, we pray that Your grace may always go before and follow after us, that we may continually be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- G Continued with sung "Amen", p. 189

OLD TESTAMENT 1 Kings 17:17–24

After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill. And his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. And she said to Elijah, “What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance and to cause the death of my son!” And he said to her, “Give me your son.” And he took him from her arms and carried him up into the upper chamber where he lodged, and laid him on his own bed. And he cried to the Lord, “O Lord my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?” Then he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to the Lord, “O Lord my God, let this child’s life come into him again.” And the Lord listened to the voice of Elijah. And the life of the child came into him again, and he revived. And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper chamber into the house and delivered him to his mother. And Elijah said, “See, your son lives.” And the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is truth.”

GRADUAL the ancient seasonal, Scriptural response to hearing God’s Word Psalm 30

- P O LORD my God, I cried to | you for help, *
and you have | healed me.
- G Sing praises to the LORD, O | you his saints, *
and give thanks to his | holy name.

EPISTLE Ephesians 3:13–21

So I ask you not to lose heart over what I am suffering for you, which is your glory. For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

ALLELUIA VERSE Psalm 115

- P Alleluia. Alleluia. You who fear the Lord, trust in the Lord! He is their help and Their shield. Alleluia.
- G Continued triple "Alleluia" p. 190

HOLY GOSPEL Luke 7:11–17

Soon afterward Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a considerable crowd from the town was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, “Do not weep.” Then he came up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, “Young man, I say to you, arise.” And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has arisen among us!” and “God has visited his people!” And this report about him spread through the whole of Judea and all the surrounding country.

PRAYER OF PREPARATION FOR COMMUNION from historical Church Fathers

O gracious Savior, it is You who are the unstoppable force to life to which the immoveable rock of death gives way, because You and You alone, are the Resurrection and the Eternal Life. For a sinner like me to have a share in such life is to be united to You. Therefore, Lord Jesus, I come to Your holy Altar with a myriad of trespasses and sins to receive Your healing touch. Bring revivification to my soul in the same way Your touch raised the widow of Nain’s son. Let me not depart until You have blessed my soul with the life that is in Your Blood, which You gave upon the Altar of the Holy Cross. Amen.

*Please turn to follow the Processional Cross;
you may bow ✠ in reverence to Christ.*

RISEN SAVIOR LUTHERAN CHURCH

Basehor, Kansas - Lutheran Church Missouri Synod

16TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

SEPT. 20, 2026

Welcome to the Lord's House. Jesus Calls forth Life from Death. A large funeral procession carrying the only son of a widow is confronted by another large procession, Jesus and His followers. Death and Life meet face to face at the gate of the city (Luke 7:11–17). Filled with compassion, Jesus comes into direct contact with our mortality in order to overcome it. He touches the coffin and speaks His creative words of life, "Young man, I say to you, arise." Jesus does what is neither expected nor requested. For through Christ, God the Father "is able to do far more abundantly than all we ask or think" (Eph. 3:14–21). Jesus bore our death in His body that we may share in His resurrection. Even as Elijah stretched himself out three times over the Zarephath woman's son (2 Kings 17:17–24), God stretched Himself out over us in the threefold application of His name in the baptismal water, breathing new and everlasting life into us. "To Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever." The Lord bless this Divine Service.

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations. Ephesians 3

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today, in the confession, as Jesus says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread, wine but His very real, true body, blood to eat, drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him, and with one another. According to Scripture, Holy Communion is also a public confession of faith, sharing a unity in doctrinal belief; also those who eat, drink our Lord's body, blood unworthily or without discernment do so to their harm. In love towards God and our neighbor, according to Scripture, the Church has always practiced a closed communion. Therefore, in love and pastoral concern for guests, if you are not a member of the LCMS and desire to receive the Sacrament, please speak with the pastor first.
