Letter from Worthy President

Brothers and Sisters

Installation of officers has been completed and everyone is adjusting to their position as we begin a new year here at the Eagles.

Phill's southern dinner was a great success with over 50 meals served. Way to go Phill. Father's Day breakfast also was well attended with around 25 guest attending. Student scholarship program was also a great success as we were able to give out 9 awards this year at $1000.00 each. Thank you Carolyn for your help at the High School to present the awards to the students.

Victor is cooking a Shepard Pie dinner this month which promises to be great also I will let you know in next months newsletter how that went.

Keep up the good work everyone things are looking up.

See you at the Lodge

Quilts for Veterans

The Oregon Coast Quilters Guild began their Veterans project in 2016. They decided to honor as many of the veterans in Lincoln County as they possibly could. Their hope is that these quilts will keep them warm and remind them every day of our gratitude for their service to our country. So far they have awarded 659 quilts in our area and hope to honor many more veterans.

Two of our lodge members Phillip Bowles and Mike Sprague were honored to receive their Veteran Quilt and now join the ranks of several other Eagles members who have received quilts in the past.

High Tea

The North Lincoln Eagles Auxiliary are inviting you and guests to attend our first formal high tea!

Kathy Warner, Auxiliary President and Tea Planner, is enthusiastic about the upcoming event. "We hope to have members meet and visit over tea to build a community of supportive and encouraging women. And what better way to do it than over tea and treats!"

You can get involved in this fun event by signing up to be a table hostess for 4-6 guests. Table Hostesses will create a tea table with a centerpiece and all the tea settings. What a great opportunity to dust off your grandma's best china or chinet!

The Eagle's Formal High Tea is planned for Saturday, August 9th from 1-4pm. The cost is $10 and details for RSVP, Hostess Sign Up and game plans will be posted. Look for prizes for Best Tea Hat, Best Table Decor and more.
